Who am I and why am I doing Comedy?

My name is Chucky D and I doing stand up because it is like therapy to me. I get to tell people my problems and they pay me for it instead of the other way around. I get fulfillment when I make people laugh because I know that I am making them forget about there worries for that period of time.

What style of Comedy of do I do?

I am a PG-13 comic. My style of comedy would be mainstream, current events and my view of everyday life in general. I have something for every crowd.

How long have I been doing Comedy?

I have been doing stand up for 12 years now.

Where will I do Comedy?

I will do comedy where there's a mic and some people gathered together to have a good time.

What types of events will I perform at?

Mostly comedy clubs and colleges, however I can adjust my performance to fit any type of event. Corporate gigs, fund raisers, and any type of charitable fund raising.

What kind of extra stuff do I do?

I am currently working of doing improve with other comic which Involves audience participation. We do not pick on the audience member. We make them a part of the skit. It's just funny to watch them try to be funny. I have also written a screen play which I am looking for a deal on. Know anybody?
