About Rick:

When Rick Gutierrez takes the stage, he does so with 17 years of stand-up experience behind him and an irreverent mix of powerful, strong, and thought-provoking material. Finally, timeless material from a Latino voice that bridges all cultural and social bounds. Rick's show has played literally from one coast to the other in any type of venue imaginable: comedy clubs, colleges, concerts, corporate events, country clubs. Rick has something for all of them. The widespread appeal of Rick's hilarious observations have earned him appearances on NBC, Showtime, as well as HBO, and have even taken him off the stand-up comedy stage recently into the world of feature films. His dedication to generating new material results in an ever-evolving act that is never complacent and his ability to bring that material to life on stage is second to none and always leaves audiences craving more.
