Who am I and why am I doing comedy?

My name is Tommy Kelley and I was born and raised on a farm in rural Arkansas. I come from a working class family with deep Christian roots. I try to live my life and perform my comedy based off of the saying "It's better to be hated for who you are than loved for who you're not". I've had to work hard all my life to get whatever I want and I take that same approach when performing. It's those hard working values and being around people with those same values that drives my comedy. I want to be the voice of all the hard working men and women of the world. That's why I do what I do.

What style of comedy do I do?

My comedy is a cross between hillbilly and redneck with just a touch of hick. It's like and old country song. I'm going to give you three chords and the truth, just straight forward and simple. Most of the shows I do are of the adult variety but I have also performed at charities and churches.

How long have I been doing comedy?

Professionally I've been doing comedy since 2005 but like all comedians I've been honing my act since the day I was born.

Where will I do comedy?

I will perform almost anywhere people will sit and listen and even a few places where they won't sit and listen.

What types of events will I perform at?

I'm fairly versatile so I guess anywhere, anytime.

What kind of extra stuff do I do?

I've done commercials in the past and I like the acting stuff but my heart is really in stand up.

What references do I have?
